

Introducing the Living Ideabook!

The Living IDEABOOK is a digital publication and actively updated extension of the original IDEABOOK. It features examples from libraries across the country and provides library leaders with a learning hub for discussing and sharing new ideas.

Share Your Story!

We're looking to write about new trends in family engagement in libraries, and we want to include you. Fill out this short form to tell us what you're up to. We're especially interested in hearing about ways libraries partner with K-12 schools to support and empower families.
